

The Tabernacle

I had a dream, wherein I walked
Into a truthful place of God
Encircling about me was
Redemption's face to call me forth.

Into Your Tabernacle Lord
I seek Your Spirit now
To transform me unto Your way
And give mine all to thee
And give mine all to thee.

But no 'tis not a dream I see
Because of what Christ did for me
His sacrifice has shown to me
That from my sins I must take leave.

Into Your Tabernacle Lord
I seek Your Spirit now
To transform me unto Your way
And give mine all to thee
And give mine all to thee.
